TRIPP WINS USAC MIDGET FEATURE FOLLOWING POST RACE DISQUALIFICATION

Lloyd Hemman made a pass for the lead with just six laps remaining to apparently claim the USAC midget feature last Saturday at Saugus Speedway, but was later disqualified giving the victory to Sleepy Tripp.

The first half of the 40-lap USAC midget feature was a runaway as fast qualifier Page Jones took the lead on lap three and blasted away into the lead. However, the first caution came out on lap 20 for Jones as he slid into the turn three wall. Lloyd Hemman took over the lead followed by Tripp and Jason Jonkman. Tripp spun coming to the restart causing another caution. Jonkman then challenged Hemman and gained the lead before a yellow flag on lap 30. After going back to green Tripp moved back up to third behind Jonkman and Hemman. Following another caution on lap 34, Hemman made a move at the restart and went passed Jonkman to regain the lead. Tripp also passed Jonkman in the following laps, but followed Hemman to the finish. However, Hemman was disqualified following the race giving Tripp the win with Jonkman second. Wally Pankratz was third with Keith Chrisco fourth and James Clapp fifth.
